---Press Release---

On 02/15/2022, members of the SEACAD Taskforce conducted an investigation into the allegation of illegal importation and distribution of methamphetamine in Wrangell, Alaska. During the course of the investigation, 24 grams of methamphetamine and $11,440 in cash were seized. Additionally, search warrants were served on three residences. The estimated street value of the seized methamphetamine is about $3,600. No arrests were made and this case is still under investigation.

SEACAD, Southeast Alaska Cities against Drugs, is a regional taskforce comprised of municipal police departments from Juneau, Ketchikan, Sitka, Haines, Skagway, Petersburg, Hoonah, Wrangell, Craig and Yakutat, the Alaska State Troopers, Federal Bureau of Investigation, Drug Enforcement Administration, United States Postal Inspection Service, and Coast Guard Investigative Service. Together, they work to investigate drug importation and distribution in the Southeast Alaska region.
